This request encompasses all notices, copies, and pleadings referred to in section 1109(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, or in Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 3017, or 9007 including, without limitation, notices of any orders, motions, orders to show cause, demands, complaints, petitions, pleadings, memoranda, affidavits, declarations, notices of adjournment, disclosure statement(s) and plan(s) of reorganization, or requests, presentments, applications, and any other documents brought before this Court or in this case and the proceedings therein, whether formal or informal, written or oral, or transmitted or conveyed by mail, delivery, telephone, electronic mail, telegraph, telecopy, telex, or otherwise which affect or seek to affect the above captioned case and any proceedings therein.

Neither this Notice of Appearance and Request for Notice and Papers nor any subsequent appearance, pleading, claim, proof of claim, document, suit, motion nor any other writing or conduct should be taken to constitute a waiver of any right of Credit Suisse: (i) to have any and all final orders in any and all non-core matters entered only after de novo review by a United States District Court Judge; (ii) to trial by jury in any proceeding as to any and all matters so triable herein, whether or not the same be designated legal or private rights, or in any case, controversy or proceeding related hereto, notwithstanding whether or not such matters are designated as “core proceedings” pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(H), and whether such jury trial is pursuant to statute or the United States Constitution; (iii) to have the reference of this matter withdrawn by the United States District Court in any matter or proceeding subject to mandatory or discretionary withdrawal; and (iv) to rights, claim, actions or defenses, setoffs, recoupments or other matters to which this party is entitled under any agreements or at law or in equity or under the United States Constitution.
